A SHORT WORD

Nicole Linam - Media Design

Clinging to the Word or the World ?

SW

Imagine with me back to when you first brought your child home from the hospital. You love this little baby so much, but realize almost immediately how much you do not know about being a parent!

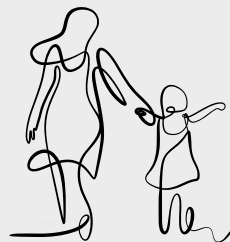

Many times in our days or weeks, we have circumstances out of our control. Whether it be the unknown of tomorrow, world events, or even the simplicity of if our vehicle can get us to the next location. The question I want to ask, what are you clinging to? Are we frequently using search engines, self-help books or dare I say a degree for our only source of wisdom? I thought I had to learn motherhood on my own. God gave me this sweet child to raise up, and I couldn't disappoint. What I didn't realize about that viewpoint... God doesn't give us a new baby, new job, or new mission and say peace out. He wants us to come to Him! Where we may lack in knowledge or wisdom in an area, our Creator has eternal and divine wisdom that we can rely on and put our full trust in.

"Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways acknowledge him, and He will make your paths straight." Proverbs 3:5-6

"His divine power has given us everything we need for a godly life through our knowledge of Him who called us by His own glory and goodness"
2 Peter 1:3

Lord help us to cling to Your Word and remain in steadfast prayer, You are the Giver of wisdom (for those whom ask, James 1:5). In Jesus Name, Amen.
